Recent Cell Leader reports:

Brenda Naska who leads a young professional's cell group writes:

I want more souls! I want disciples to move out of what God is giving me. Thank you for not giving up on me. Thanks for the prayers.

Maricel Bangoy, who leads a children's cell group writes: These kids are awesome! This week after the cell group, we prayed for people. First we prayed for Micko's grandfather. (Micko is a 10-year-old boy whose parents have died and his grandparents are raising him. His grandfather is in a wheelchair and cannot speak). I have seen continuous healing in his body. His grandfather is always listening to us every time we have cell group at their house.

AJ Locsin who leads a youth cell group writes: Most of our cell group has an open heart for the Gospel. I sense their hunger and desire for the reality of God in their lives. They mention that they want to see their generation changed but that it should start inside of them.

Olivia Ruiz who leads a women's cell group writes: This week Kristy has been using the things she learns in our cell group to minister to her friend. She mentioned that in spite of how little money that they receive each week they always make a point to help her mother. I saw growth in Kristy where she wants to help others.
